

Job Description

Duty Location: Erlanger, KY, CVG Airport

Sunaero offers a fast paced, positive work environment in the aircraft maintenance industry. We offer ground-breaking, high-technology fuel leak repair services to all major aircraft manufacturers, air carriers and MROs. If you are looking for advancement in your career with a team of high energy go-getters submit your resume and cover letter today.

**Must have 2+ years of dedicated fuel systems maintenance experience****

**Sheet metal experience is a PLUS****

Aircraft Fuel System Mechanic – FAA Part 145 Repair Station

Safety Sensitive: Ability to pass background check and Drug & Alcohol screening.

Reports to: Director of Maintenance

Duty Location: Erlanger, KY

This position is responsible for inspection, repair and maintenance of aircraft fuel tanks and cells, and in-flight refueling systems. Complies with safety, fire, security, and housekeeping regulations. Subject to rotating shift potential, providing coverage on off duty weekends, and supporting unit temporary duty assignments.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Performs fuel leak evaluation, classification and repair including organic sealant removal, aircraft surface preparation and application of organic sealing compounds.

Performs inspections, functional checks and preventive maintenance on assigned aircraft to include periodic, phase, hourly, calendar and special inspections.

Performs unscheduled maintenance to include troubleshooting fuel system malfunctions, determining the extent and type of repair, and performing the necessary repairs to include the removal, installation, adjustment and operational checks of various fuel system components such as fuel lines, valves, pumps, and switches on assigned aircraft utilizing various test equipment.

May be required to perform user and organizational level maintenance on assigned support equipment, including inspection, repair, modification.

Completes all required documentation to include IMDS entries, aircraft and equipment maintenance forms and historical data.

Prepares for, supports and participates in all applicable inspections and exercises.

Performs additional shop duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

High school diploma or equivalent Understand and properly complete repair station paperwork Use proper time management to ensure aircraft parts will be returned to service according to schedule

Use of basic hand and power tools

General shop duties

Understands, reads and writes English.

Aircraft Fuel Systems Technician CVG

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: $25.00 per hour

Benefits: Health insurance after 90 days

COVID-19 considerations: Health and safety precautions per CDC protocols must be adhered to.